Winter in Bathurst

While Bathurst Regional Council has taken a step back from running the Bathurst Winter Festival due to its financial sustainability, local businesses have collaborated to create a fresh, community-driven winter experience. A range of exciting events will take place across Bathurst during the winter school holidays, showcasing the spirit and creativity of the region.

Visitors can look forward to a magical new take on winter in Bathurst, with unique events and activations spread across the city. A full program of events will be announced soon and made available on the Visit Bathurst Region website here: <https://www.bathurstregion.com.au/winter-in-bathurst/>
