Human Library: Un-judge a book

Monday 9 October 2023 10am to 1pm.

A Human Library is a library where real people are on loan, creating a safe, conversational space where topics are discussed openly between a 'human book' and a reader (community member).

Each human book is a distinctive story that details their lived experience of belonging, diversity and inclusion.

This is a drop-in event, come 'browse' our human books, see who is available for a 1:1 session to hear their intriguing life stories.

Expression of Interest

Rural Licence Agreement grazing only

20ha of land located at 44 Freemantle Road, Eglinton. Maximum stocking rates of either ten horses, eight cows or 80 sheep.

Licence will be twelve months with a twelve month option for renewal. A bond of $1,000 and Public Liability Insurance of $20 million over the licenced area must be supplied by successful applicant.
