Proclamation Day
Residents of Bathurst, let’s celebrate the shared history of our town this Proclamation Day.
An Official Ceremony will take place at the Flagstaff (Bicentennial Park) on Sunday 5 May at 10.00 am, where Bathurst’s newest Living Legends will be acknowledged and the Bathurst Macquarie Heritage Medal Project announced.
A commemoration of past Bathurstians will take place at the Pillars of Bathurst at 11.00 am, followed by light refreshments. Residents are encouraged to wander along the Delightful Spot trail on self-guided tours and learn about some of Bathurst’s rich history. Call 6333 6111 for more information.

Bathurst Winter Festival
Now that the weather is cooling down, it’s time to start planning for the 2019 Bathurst Winter Festival. The festival is currently accepting expressions of interest from local businesses, community groups and food vendors to be involved in the Festival. There are a number of ways that businesses can become involved, including through the Program of Events, the Treasure Hunt, or by having a stall at the festival. To find out how your business can make the most of the Bathurst Winter Festival, visit bathurstwinterfestival.com.au or call the Events team on 6333 6111.
